[REDACTED]

Returned herewith is the file on [REDACTED] which you sent up on 28 September. As I have previously indicated to your office, I saw General Brannon, the JAG, and he said he would be glad to cooperate in having a mutually satisfactory assignment worked out for Mr.

[REDACTED] He called Colonel Miller, his Chief of Personnel, who made note of the name and promised to review his assignment with the view of sending [REDACTED] to the Far East. General Brannon has no objection to operational contact with [REDACTED] but stated that was a matter for the local commander to decide. [REDACTED] is about through at the Charlottesville school, but his overseas assignment would probably not take place until next Spring.
